"The complexity and difficulty of explaining IT governance is one of the most serious barriers to increasing the value derived from IT"

(Weill and Broadbent 2002).

Seminar Overview

To provide participants involved with the implementation of IT Governance with an outline of the practical issues associated with the implementation of IT Governance. The seminar will look at the experience of organisations that have been active in the implementation of IT Governance to share both successful experiences as well to identify issues that should be addressed.

The seminar provides an opportunity to meet with others involved in the implementation of IT Governance and allows an opportunity to network over lunch.

Who should attend?

Anyone responsible for IT Governance and those involved in IT Governance implementation as well as those involved in assessing the implementation of IT Governance.

Course programme includes

Ms Elaine Ninham	National Manager, Capability, Planning And Governance, Centrelink	IT Governance in Centrelink
Mr Mark Haughey	Department of Employment and Workplace Relations	Achieving Effective IT Governance with ITIL and COBIT
Mr Jim Street	Department of Veterans' Affairs	Aligning IT Governance and Quality
